Forecast For Scotland
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Thursday 18 Mar 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Mainly dry and mild with some brightness, dull in north.

Today:
Most places will be dry with some bright or sunny spells. Low cloud will persist across the north and northwest with a little drizzle. Temperatures remaining on the mild side, locally warm across Fife and Perthshire.

Tonight:
Low cloud and patchy drizzle will linger across the north, some of this extending into the southeast later. Otherwise dry with clear skies and a few fog patches.

Friday:
Staying dull with occasional drizzle across the east, northwest and Northern Isles. Elsewhere dry with some sunshine, feeling very mild.

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Staying mostly settled although rather cloudy at times. A little light rain across the north at times. Feeling very mild in any sunshine.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.